

What is CYIA?

Christian Youth In Action® (CYIA™) is a training school developed and run by Child Evangelism Fellowship® (CEF®) staff and volunteers. At CYIA, high school students learn how to effectively share the Gospel with children and teach 5-Day Clubs® (mobile VBS) in their local areas. They can also use their training on mission trips and in their own church's children's ministry. CYIA gives students many opportunities to share the Gospel and even witness the miracle of children accepting Christ as their Savior when they hear the Good News.

What will you learn?

- How to lead a child to Christ
- How to teach a Bible lesson that shares the Gospel and teaches growing in Christ
- How to teach a memory verse so that children understand and remember it
- How to lead songs effectively and teach through the lyrics
- How to excite children for missions by telling a true story about a missionary from history
- How to keep your class fun and energetic while maintaining classroom discipline

Cost: $250
